DEDICATION

This yearbook is dedicated not to a person or persons but to an idea which, when put into full scale development in 1945, resulted in a singularly successful program in building international understanding.

The Euclid Senior High School students, having benefited from the unique fruits of this program for the past two years, in the persons of Mr. Peter Badham and Mr. Clifford Owen, appreciate the fact that the exchange teachers are really "ambassadors of good will without portfolio."

The teachers exchange program bases itself on the idea that the key station of teachers in every community furnishes varied opportunities for advancing international understanding and cooperation. These teachers are given the opportunity, not only to become better teachers, but also to become better citizens of their own respective countries and better citizens of the world.

Therefore it is with great pride and humility that we, the EUCLIDIAN staff of 1953, dedicate this book to the International Teachers Exchange Program and to the teachers throughout the world who are participating in this program. Theirs has been and is "a monumental contribution to understanding and to world peace."

FACULTY...

Preach with conviction and teach with integrity.

All I can offer you is blood, toil, tears, and sweat.

—Prime Minister Churchill

W. G. FORDYCE

The people of Euclid have indicated their confidence in the American public school by the generosity of their support for these schools. Our high school students are particularly fortunate in having one of the most beautiful school buildings in the country. It is the hope of the Board of Education and of your parents that you have taken full advantage of these facilities and of the contacts with a group of well-trained, stimulating teachers.

Your yearbook is a record of your days in this school. We hope they were happy ones. As you leave the school, you assume to a greater degree the obligations of citizenship. The test of your educational experience will be in what kind of citizen you become and how fully you support the American ideals which have made your education possible. The Board of Education expresses its congratulations and best wishes for your future.

W. G. FORDYCE,
Superintendent.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

During its short life Euclid High School has been privileged to graduate many fine young men and women. This annual well illustrates the opportunities for all to live and learn in an atmosphere which contributes to a well-rounded life.

We believe, at Euclid High, that students should have the opportunity to live in a democratic atmosphere. This opportunity to participate has helped our students to better assume adult responsibilities after high school graduation.

The publication of this yearbook with all the responsibilities which accompany it is evidence of the merit and the ability of our student body. May the lives of all who attend here be fruitful and make worthwhile contributions to an enlightened and better world.

CLIFFORD G. OWENS,

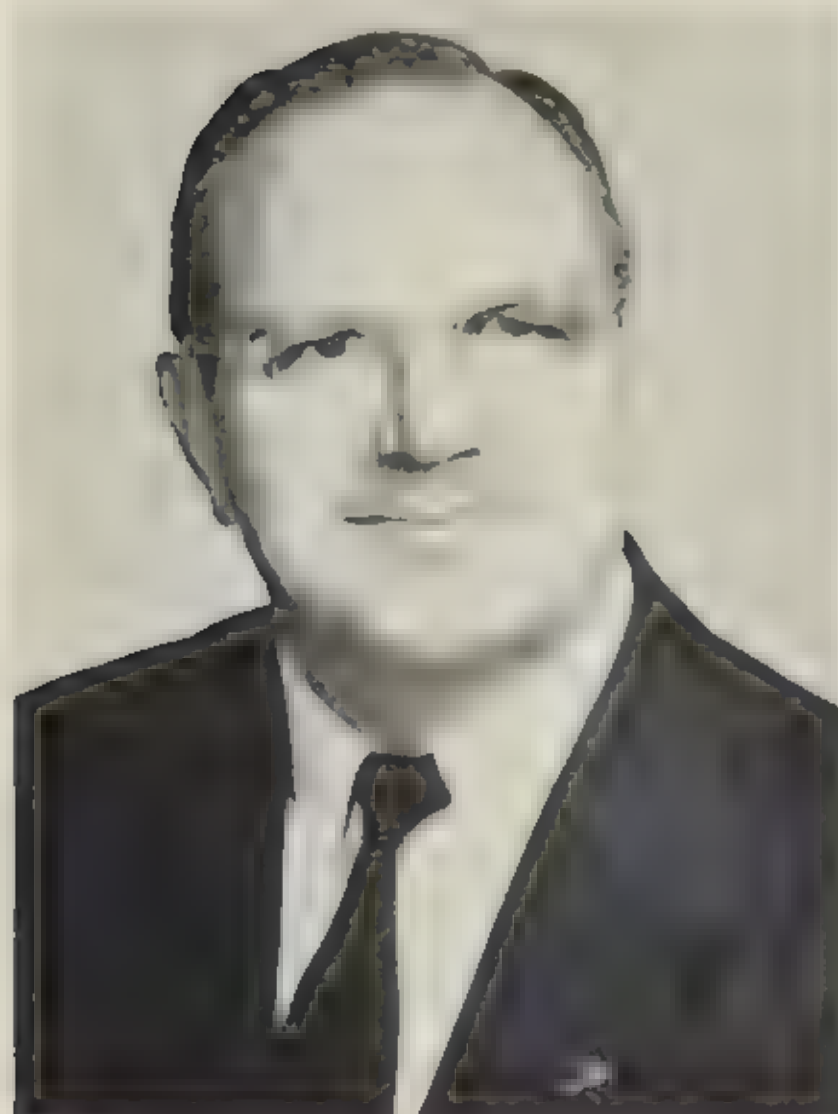

Principal

During these critical war years American youth has been brought face to face with several very serious challenges. Many of our young people have been forced to decide whether to enter combat service or to assist with industry, or to continue their education. The decision will never be an easy one. American youth, always highly patriotic, understands what it means to maintain the American way of life at whatever cost is necessary.

Your teachers and friends have confidence that you will continue your preparation and thus work for a better world.

Best wishes

WALTER SCHWEGLER.

DEAN OF MEN AND DEAN OF WOMEN

As mediators of student-faculty relations and advisors to both students and faculty, our Deans, Mr. Meryle Baumer and Mrs. Harriet Sheets, hold two of the most vital positions in our school government.

Librarians It is our aim to have the library a part of the school, not merely a place where books are stored. ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Used in thinking and communicating ideas, a skillful use of language is necessary for every intellectual endeavor and most social relationships. Through many experiences each six-week period, Euclid students continually improve their reading, writing, speaking, and listening, helping to make better citizens, to become successful in their life's work, and to live happy, well-adjusted personal lives.

Ruby Olson

Myron Gordon

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

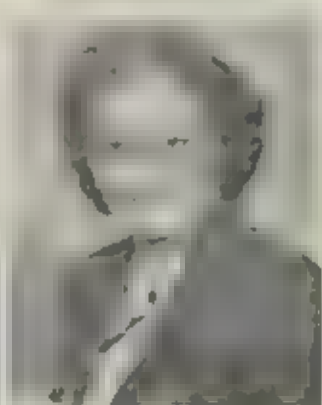

To encourage the highest type of citizenship in problems dealing with government, economics, religion, and race, whose solutions depend entirely upon an intelligent and understanding attitude of all future active participants in American democracy, and to try to develop those qualities which will make for a most intelligent citizenship, are not the least of the goals toward which the social studies teacher strives. The encouragement of a cooperative spirit or an attitude of tolerance and the appreciation of culture are two further objectives.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Neal Mackeigan

Anthony Vaccariello

Ruth Vermillion

Leonard Rabuck

The constantly improving transportation facilities, plus more and better means of communication, have brought the present generation of Americans into a community of nations in which the United States must play the part of a neighbor and a leader. Now as never before, it behooves Americans to make themselves understood by the other peoples of the world. It further behooves them to make every effort to understand the millions of persons in the world who express themselves in languages which are foreign to Americans.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

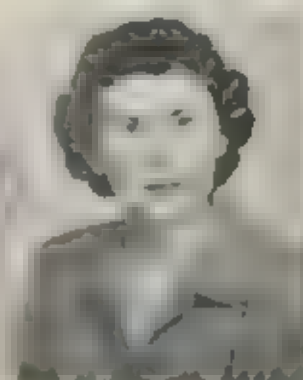

Delmar Smith

John Reeves

June Phypers

Edmund Mize

The general objective of the Commercial course is to prepare the student to enter the business world immediately after graduation. The students in the "Co-op" department are given a minimum of fifteen hours a week of actual work experience at the prevailing wage rate. This program offers to the students the opportunity of "learning by doing."

Dolores Hohs

Louise Darst

Donald Brown

Lillian Barrow

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

A knowledge of the various sciences is extremely useful as well as being rewarding. The general objective of the study of science is to lead the student to acquire, classify, and select facts and to draw logical conclusions. The program of scientific study offered at Euclid is a varied one which offers such courses as Physics, Horticulture, Biology, and Chemistry.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Beula Wilson

Albine Weitzel

Fred Johns

Adrian Buerger

Our Mathematics department offers: Shop Mathematics, Algebra, Plain and Solid Geometry, and Trigonometry. All of the courses in mathematics except shop math are a necessity for the student entering a career of engineering or science. These math courses are sufficient for all the skilled trades in and out of industry as well as for a foundation for further mathematics in higher education.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

Fred Vollman

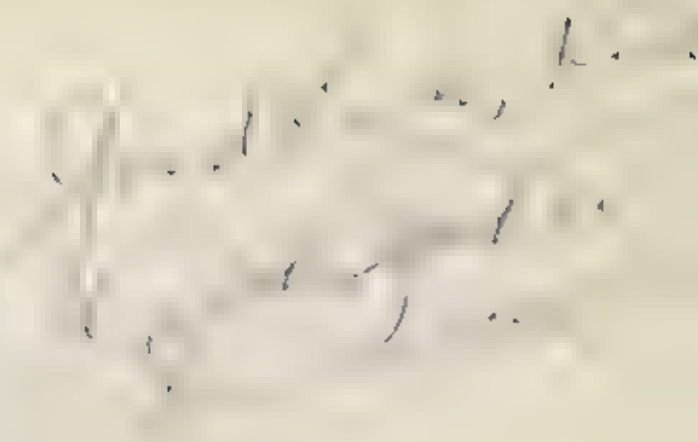

Ford Case

Clarence Eckert

John Supanc

Aloysius Gullekt

John Phbro

Mervyn Stames

Frank Troglia

Generally speaking, the Art and Industrial Arts courses are designed as nearly as possible to provide instruction and experience basic to the vocations and avocations represented in our school, shops, and craft rooms.

The Industrial Arts subjects as set up are not intended to prepare anyone for a specific job such as running a drill press or becoming a specialist in repairing automobile carburetors of a certain make. The instructors try to give a broad background in the subject, to develop basic skills peculiar to the field, and to teach cooperation within the group.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music department offers the student interested in music an opportunity to participate in band, orchestra, or choir. There is an opportunity for all, in both popular and classical music. Naturally, a desire to play or sing is stimulated, and it is hoped an understanding and appreciation of the finer type of music is developed.

Dale Harper

Ian Thompson

ART DEPARTMENT

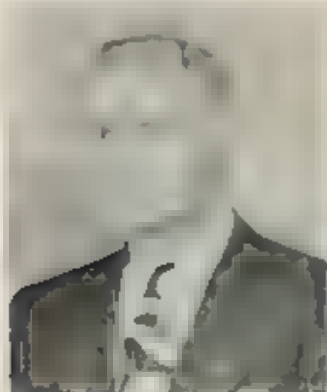

The art course is constructed to provide a maximum of experience in all phases of art as it applies to everyday life. This covers painting, drawing, crafts, appreciation, consumer education, ceramics, metalwork, sculpture, commercial art, and others. The emphasis is on practical work, although anyone who cares to use art as a career will find that this course will prepare him for art school or college art courses.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Spartoco DiBiasio

Joseph Gram

Cecily Green

Jane Laiss

James Calvert

The physical education program for boys and girls is perhaps one of the most important in the Euclid High curriculum. Its purpose is to develop and maintain physical efficiency, establish desirable health attitudes, develop permanent interest in recreational activities, sportsmanship and a sense of fair play, self-control, poise, grace, ease, and self-assurance.

HOME ARTS DEPARTMENT

Marion Hoddick

Edith Lemon

Jessie Howe

The general aims of the Home Arts course are: (1) To lead the student to realize some of her responsibilities as a member of a democratic home and community; (2) To help the student analyze and solve her personal problems as to clothing, food, and social relationships.

The Home Arts Department offers courses which prepare a girl for the greatest career of her life—marriage.

SENIORS..

The Seniors of Euclid Senior High School, with three valuable years of preparation behind them, are now ready to take their respective places in the community.

This class has always held high the principles and standards of Euclid Senior High School and will be long remembered for its many achievements.

Now that commencement is drawing near, the Seniors will march proudly across the stage and receive their diplomas. This will be a happy day but tinged with sorrow. They leave the past with regret but face the future with great expectations.

SENIORS...

The bottom half of the upper crust!

We, the Senior Class of 1953, remember the Senior Play, those wild parties, Euclid's basketball team (and the self-appointed bugler at Cleveland Heights), leaving assembly first, memorizing Shakespeare, and finally we remember teachers and underclassmen who made our senior year so hectic.

UNDERCLASSMEN...

He that climbs a ladder must begin at the first round.

JUNIORS . . .

Honors go to our outstanding Junior Class for its scholastic achievements and for its leadership and participation in school activities. The officers, under the guidance of the class advisors, were the helping hands that led the Juniors through a year of success and fun.

The Class of '54, with the success that it has already gained, is looking forward to another year of all around achievement.

SOPHOMORES . . .

The difficulties of adjusting to a new school, new surrounding, and making new acquaintances confronted the class of '55 just as it does any sophomore class. These obstacles were soon forgotten, however, as the first few weeks of confusion and excitement died away.

The Sophomore Class has really displayed a keen interest in class affairs and the numerous school activities. We are certain that the Sophomore Class with the initiative that they have already shown can be expected to do great things in the future.

SOPHOMORES . . .

We, the Sophomores of 1953, will never forget the trouble we had finding our classrooms during the first week of school, the first "Homecoming," reading Silas Marner, "green Thursdays," and white bucks.

THE JUNIOR PLAY

The delightful comedy, "Our Miss Brooks," was presented in the auditorium November 21st and 22nd, by the Junior Class. The play was a huge success, and provided many laughs and an excellent evening's entertainment for those people who saw it.

We offer a vote of thanks to Mr. Leonard Robuck, who directed the play, for the way he tirelessly gave of his time to work with the cast. His steady influence did much to eliminate those opening night jitters.

"Our Miss Brooks" was based on the radio and TV show by the same name, starring Eve Arden and depicted Miss Brooks, a high school English teacher, directing a school play of her own. A romance was added between Miss Brooks and Hugo Longacre, the basketball coach, and when the curtain was finally rung down on the last performance, most people agreed that this was one of the finest Junior Plays ever seen at Euclid.

Mary Chases's delightful comedy, Harvey, provided the Senior play cast with many enjoyable afternoons and evenings of rehearsal, and the large crowd who came to see the play, with an evenings entertainment.

Doane Mansberger as Elwood Dowd—the lighthearted gentleman who is befriended by the six foot white rabbit Harvey—and Myra Jerkis as his sister, Veta Louise—who tries in vain to destroy the supposedly mythical rabbit only to find herself coming under Harvey's influence—kept the play moving swiftly and smoothly.

The production of Harvey was a large undertaking, but the Seniors under Mr. Bennett's direction carried it through to success.

N. F. L.

Once again the N. F. L. club members can look back with sincere pride on its accomplishments of the year. It has been a year of success and failure, happiness and despair. This year the club was increased from thirty members of last year to approximately seventy-five members.

The Prince of Peace contest started the speech activity in November. Experience once again proved valuable as Bill Fortner, Marcia Kuchera, Joanne Lacey, Mary Grace Derbaum, and Roger Pae won in the first set of contests. In the next contest Roger Pae was victorious and went on to win third place in the district.

The I. H. S. debate team did very well in their first district in Lakewood, Ohio. The first all events contest was at St. Joseph. Following this were contests at Ravenna, Cathedral Latin, Niles, and Cuyahoga Falls. Euclid contestants made an excellent showing in all of these contests. The high point of the year was reached on February 21 when Euclid held its second all events tournament. This was even bigger and better than last year's contest.

One of the highlights of the year was that coach Mr. Leonard Robuck, served as a member of the northern Ohio district committee of N. F. L.

Next year, judging from the fine showing this year, Euclid should occupy one of the top positions in N. F. L. ranking in the nation.

The Student Council is one of the most important organizations in our school. It was the Student Council that sponsored dances after our games, refurbished the Recreation Room, presented our first annual homecoming, and gave us assemblies such as the one during which Mr. Clifford Owen gave his interpretations of American ways.

The Student Council served well as the link between the faculty and students which brought both harmony and efficiency to our school government.

STUDENT COUNCIL EXECUTIVE BOARD

The executive board of Euclid High School, presided over by the Student Council president, is composed of the leaders of the main functions of the Student Council: Assembly Chairman, Hall Guard Supervisor, Honor Study Hall Head, Captain of the School Guides, Concessions Chairman, Cafeteria Supervisor and Recreation Room Supervisor. These people decide important issues to be brought before the council and the various projects which they desire the council to undertake.

STUDENT COUNCIL BOOK STORE

The Book Store of Euclid High under the direction of Kathy Ingraham and Mary Ann Hallack is really helpful when one needs notebook paper, pencils, or some other classroom supply. It is open every period of the day and is operated by the students.

HALL GUARD CAPTAINS

Our Hall Guard system under the direction of Joanne Lacey insured visitors of a courteous welcome to and guidance in any part of the building. The period captains of the hall guard system were: [names] and [names]. Each captain was responsible for a certain every post was occupied by a competent person and the hall guard aided the deans by delivering attendance slips to the office.

STUDENT COUNCIL CONCESSIONS

One of the most important jobs of the Student Council is to manage concessions at all important athletic events. This year the job fell into the hands of Tim Browning and his assistants. Bill Fortner, Jan Eiber, and [names] were also involved.

National Honor Society

One of the most coveted honors that a high school may bestow upon one of its students is the honor of being inducted into the National Honor Society. A membership in the National Honor Society is cherished throughout one's entire life, whether he may choose to go to college or otherwise.

Any student who has maintained a scholastic average of eighty-five percent or better, is eligible for membership. The students are chosen from the Junior and Senior classes according to the standards of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. They are selected on a point basis by each member of the faculty and the present members of the Society.

Each year in January, the induction ceremony takes place during an all-school assembly. No student knows who has been selected for initiation until the names are read in the assembly.

Our chapter of the National Honor Society, led by Mr. Stanley Whiteside, is one of the 3,500 in the United States today. It is not a service club, although most of its members are key persons in other service clubs. They have social activities and each year find a means of earning money to defray the cost of pins and other expenses.

Hi-Y

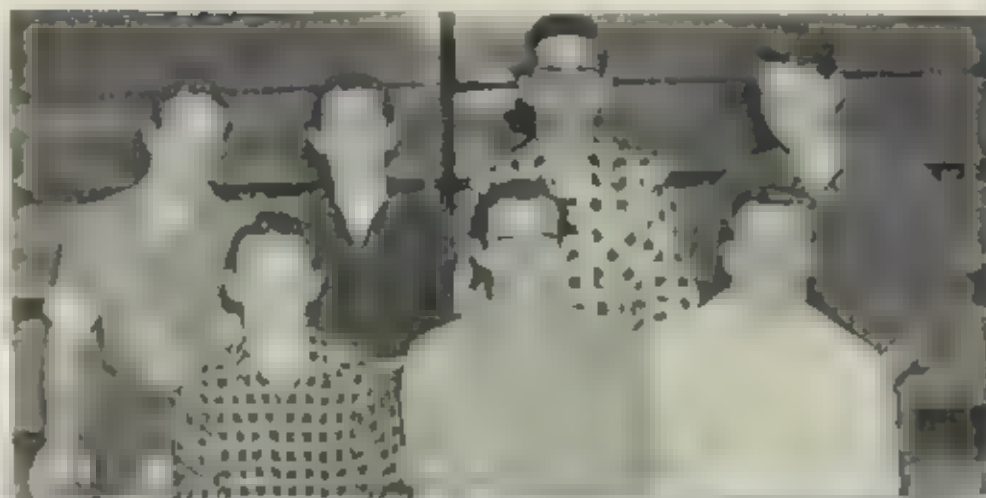

Remember the old song, "For he's a jolly good fellow"? Well, when referring to the Hi-Y, we must say "for they're all jolly good fellows."

The Hi-Y is an organization for boys with the desire to create an attitude which promotes Christian living. Their many activities offer not only service to the student body but also pleasure to the members.

Because of the large number of boys participating in the Hi-Y activities, the organization is divided into four chapters, the Knights, Squires, Nobles, and Regents, each having its own individual projects and activities.

Swim Club

Wat Napolo, Euclid High School Swim Club, has as its objective, the advancement of the swimmer's technique, and speed swimming.

The Club consists of twenty girls and twenty boys, who must pass a rigid test to become members.

A good deal of the club's time is spent in preparing the annual water show, which is given in the spring.

F. T. A.

The transference of knowledge from one generation to another is a job that will always be necessary. There will always be a need for it.

The purpose of the F. T. A. Club is the uniting of students who have a common goal—that of being one of the Future Teachers of America.

Ad Club

The Ad Club is very important to the success of the sports program here at Euclid High. Without it the sports activities would not run as smoothly as they do. It is the responsibility of the Ad Club to sell the tickets to school sports events as football games, basketball games, and wrestling meets.

SENIOR CABINET Let's take a vote!

This democratic suggestion is frequently heard at any one of the sessions of Euclid's Senior Cabinet, as selected senior class students meet under the leadership and guidance of the class sponsor, Mr. Smith, and class President Vince Capello, to discuss and settle the various problems with which a Senior Class is always confronted.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Red Cross Council has accomplished a great deal in its brief two-year history.

The purpose of the Council is to coordinate all Red Cross activities in the school and to stimulate interest in Red Cross among the student body.

Though only a few belong, it has very admirably fulfilled its purpose.

THE FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Friendship Club of 1953 has had one of its most successful years. Just ask any of its members and they'll all agree that the many activities have kept them more than busy throughout the year.

The Friendship Club is an organization for Sophomore, Junior, and Senior girls. Its purpose is to develop leadership among girls through their active participation in social programs and service projects for our school and community.

MAJORETTE CLUB

Three to one odds may seem rather good at first glance, but to the thirty girls in the Majorette Club who are vying for the ten varsity majorette positions the odds begin to appear quite high comes the month of May and the final selection of the next year's candidates.

Regardless of whether or not they are one of the lucky ten, the girls appreciate the various skills such as twirls, dances, and marches which they have learned, and the great deal of fun and enjoyment they have had during the year as a member of the Majorette Club.

THE MEGAPHONE CLUB—THE CHEERLEADERS

The Megaphone Club is composed of thirty students who work toward a common goal—that of becoming a cheerleader. These girls are trained during regular meetings by the varsity cheerleaders, with the assistance of Mr. Mize. They are taught acrobatics, hand and leg movements, facial expression, and coordination.

Unfortunately, all members cannot become cheerleaders, but it is a high honor for those who do. Our cheerleaders, chosen for their exuberance and school spirit, are the "Zip! Bang!" of the school.

For the limelight they enjoyed a couple of times a week, they spent many hours practicing so they could arrive at near perfection in the cheers which they led. With the help of their advisor, Mr. Edmund Mize, they also planned and presented the pep sessions held for the student body.

With everlasting pep and enthusiasm, our cheerleaders followed the football and basketball teams wherever they went. Whether the team was victorious or lost a heart-breaking game, whether few or multitudes of students were in attendance, they proceeded to cheer and hoped that they might add that necessary spark to the team.

DANCE CLUB

The Dance Club under the direction of two representatives from the Fred Astaire Studio meets every Wednesday. The club is sponsored by Miss Hobs and Mr. Bennett. The members of this club enjoy themselves learning new steps and express much interest in improving their dancing.

THE PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club was originated to provide avocational and vocational interests for its members and to extend the services of the club to other clubs and agencies in the school.

Third Period Clubs

THE QUARTERBACK CLUB

Through movies, charts, and discussions, the Quarterback Club attempts to enlighten boys interested in football so that they, as players or spectators, may possess a keener appreciation of the ramifications of the sport.

J.V. QUARTERBACK CLUB

The J.V. Quarterback Club, like the Varsity Club, is gaining more knowledge of football. They are picking up pointers that will enable them to be top contenders for the varsity football squad.

THE TRACK AND FIELD CLUB

The Track and Field Club meets every Wednesday to discuss track events, techniques, and qualifications for various track and field efforts.

The personnel of the club is comprised of varsity Track letter men and other boys who are interested or may have participated in Euclid junior highs or other schools.

THE DRAWING AND PAINTING CLUB

This club is for the students who are interested in art and are unable to fit the subject into their schedule. Fundamentals of drawing and painting are studied and practiced.

THE PUBLICATIONS CLUB

The Publications Club fosters interest in personal writing. The Club serves as an editorial board for the Eucuyo, the school literary magazine published in the winter and spring.

THE OSCAR CLUB

The Oscar Club discusses the current movies and the actors in them. Members see one play and one picture a semester.

SOPHOMORE DRAMA CLUB

The Sophomores, through the Sophomore Drama Club, have a real opportunity to learn about the stage and gain a small amount of knowledge of acting. Mrs. Olson sponsored the club first semester and Mr. Robuck the second semester.

SHORTHAND FOR FUN

Realizing that they like to do those things they find themselves best able to do, the members of Mr. Donald Brown's club explore the secretarial field.

THE EMBROIDERY CLUB

The nineteen girls in the Embroidery Club are learning to make the linens for their hope chests distinctive by trimming them with fine stitches.

THE RED CROSS CLUB

The Red Cross Club sponsored by Miss Edith Lemon gives local service to hospitals, national service to the armed forces, and international service to children overseas.

THE TRAVEL CLUB

Have you ever visited distant Africa, or taken a hike through Canadian forests? These, plus other interesting and imaginary trips, movies, and discussions, have been part of the program of the Travel Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Miller.

THE CHARM CLUB

Open only to Senior girls, the Charm Club offers numerous helpful hints on good grooming. Miss Wilma Gillman contacts many prominent persons to give lectures on such topics as clothing, hair styles, make-up, proper diet, etc.

THE DIAMOND SPORTS CLUB

The Diamond Sports Club members, under the leadership of Mr. Photo, view professional training films and discuss baseball techniques and methods of play. They also contact the big league scouts for talks on what the scouts look for in amateur players. Each spring the members choose the player who has done most for the betterment of the high school team and award the "Outstanding Player Trophy".

THE PING PONG CLUB

The senior boys in Mr. Gordon's Ping Pong Club enjoy the competition of some of the best of the school's players. A tournament highlights this club's activities.

HOME NURSING CLUB

The Nurse teaches the members of her club the proper way to care for those who are bedridden, thus helping members gain practical knowledge which will be of value throughout their lives.

THE CANASTA CLUB

In the Canasta Club the students have the opportunity to learn to play the game, as well as to learn good sportsmanship and card-table manners.

THE KNITTING CLUB

Mrs. Barrows hopes the girls will derive relaxation and pleasure in learning the skill of knitting in the Knitting Club.

THE AUTOMOTIVES CLUB

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Staines the "Euclid Grade Monkeys," as they prefer to be called, study the fundamentals of automobile construction. Proper maintenance and good driving habits are among the major topics discussed by this tenth grade group of boys.

THE ROUND TABLE CLUB

The Round Table Club discusses current events and current affairs and issues. Members have an opportunity to bring their points of view before the group, but they must be prepared to receive criticism in a friendly manner.

THE ARTHUR GODFREY CLUB

The Arthur Godfrey Club is divided into three groups: (1) those who are learning to play, (2) those who sing as a group to guitar accompaniment, and (3) those who play banjo ukuleles.

During the last ten minutes the group usually gets together for a combined program.

THE PINOCHLE CLUB

The purpose of the Pinochle Club is to teach the boys and girls a few of the fundamental principles of the game of pinochle. In later years this game may be a source of many enjoyable moments.

THE BRIDGE CLUB

The Bridge Club is a sixteen member group devoted to learning the finer points of Contract Bridge and also enjoying the social aspects of the game.

Stage Crew

The Stage Crew started with the Senior High School and has progressed and developed with the various needs. Starting as a Stagecrafters Club, the set-up has changed, gradually, to a regular school course in stagecraft meeting two periods a day and carrying regular school credit.

Equipment has been furnished by the Euclid Board of Education, and the Euclid P. T. A. has contributed much to augment the facilities.

KICK STARTED HIS TOWELING TO PROGRESS for the third year in a row, Coach Clarence Eckert's grapplers took second as five boys placed in the state.

Winning state titles at 127 and 165 lbs. respectively were co-captains Manuel Paz and Ron Phillips. Jim Kalin, out for a good part of the season with a spine injury, took second place at 138 lbs. Dick Brennan notched a third in the heavyweight class, and previously unheralded Don Joranko took fourth in the 112 lb. division.

In regular season matches, the Panther varsity won 6 and dropped 2. The "B" team notched one victory against one loss, defeating Maple Heights and losing to University School.

CLEVELAND was the Black and Gold's first victim, falling 34-8. In the second match of the year, the Panthers downed a tough John Marshall squad, 20-18. Next came two easy wins over West and Lakewood.

With three regulars out with injuries, Euclid lost 18 to powerful West Tech. Bouncing back in Euclid fashion, the Panthers knocked off John Adams and John Hay.

In an attempt to snare a Greater Cleveland Conference tie, Euclid suffered a heartbreaking loss to Shaker, 17-15.

Although the nucleus of this year's squad is graduating, other capable grapplers have received added experience and instruction and will be ready to keep Euclid a power in scholastic wrestling.

Co-captains of the 19 "Blue and Gold" mat team were 128 lb. Manuel "Toots" Paz and 165 lb. Ron Phillips. Completing the regular season undefeated, both Manuel and Ron went on to win the state championship in their respective divisions. "Toots" was the state champ at 120 lbs. last year, and Ron took a second in the 165 lb. class.

Jim Kalin, full of aches and pains and canvasback Ron Joranko sat in one corner talking to "Honest Chuck Reier, the Rail splitter." Jim McDermott, muttering, "I should have beat him" was consoled by Chuck Bolden, who deals with bonesetters. Don Contenza, who needs a college scholarship badly, had to tell "Four-ever Ron Phillips the time of day. Joe Turkall complained again that his opponents are all bigger than he is. "Toots Paz remarked that he is still looking for a female friend, but Dick Brennan and Bob Ehas said nothing, for their girls keep them quiet.

Posting the best season record of any Euclid cage squad, the Panther hoopsters rolled to 17 victories in 19 games for a winning percentage of .895.

The "Blue and Gold" opened the season by dumping East High, 60-46. Elyria then pulled an upset by downing Euclid on the Pioneer court, 50-47.

Like True champions, the Panthers rebounded to capture fourteen straight tilts. Included in this streak were double wins over Shaker, Cleveland Heights, Lorain, and Shaw. Other victories came over Painseville Harvey, 60-38, Lakewood, 57-49, Canton Lehman, 65-47, Brush, 53-43, Elvria, 69-39 and Ashtabula 65-53.

The first Heights encounter was won 59-53 in a thrilling overtime battle. Euclid clinched its first Lake Erie League championship in the second Shaw contest, winning by a 60-42 count.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

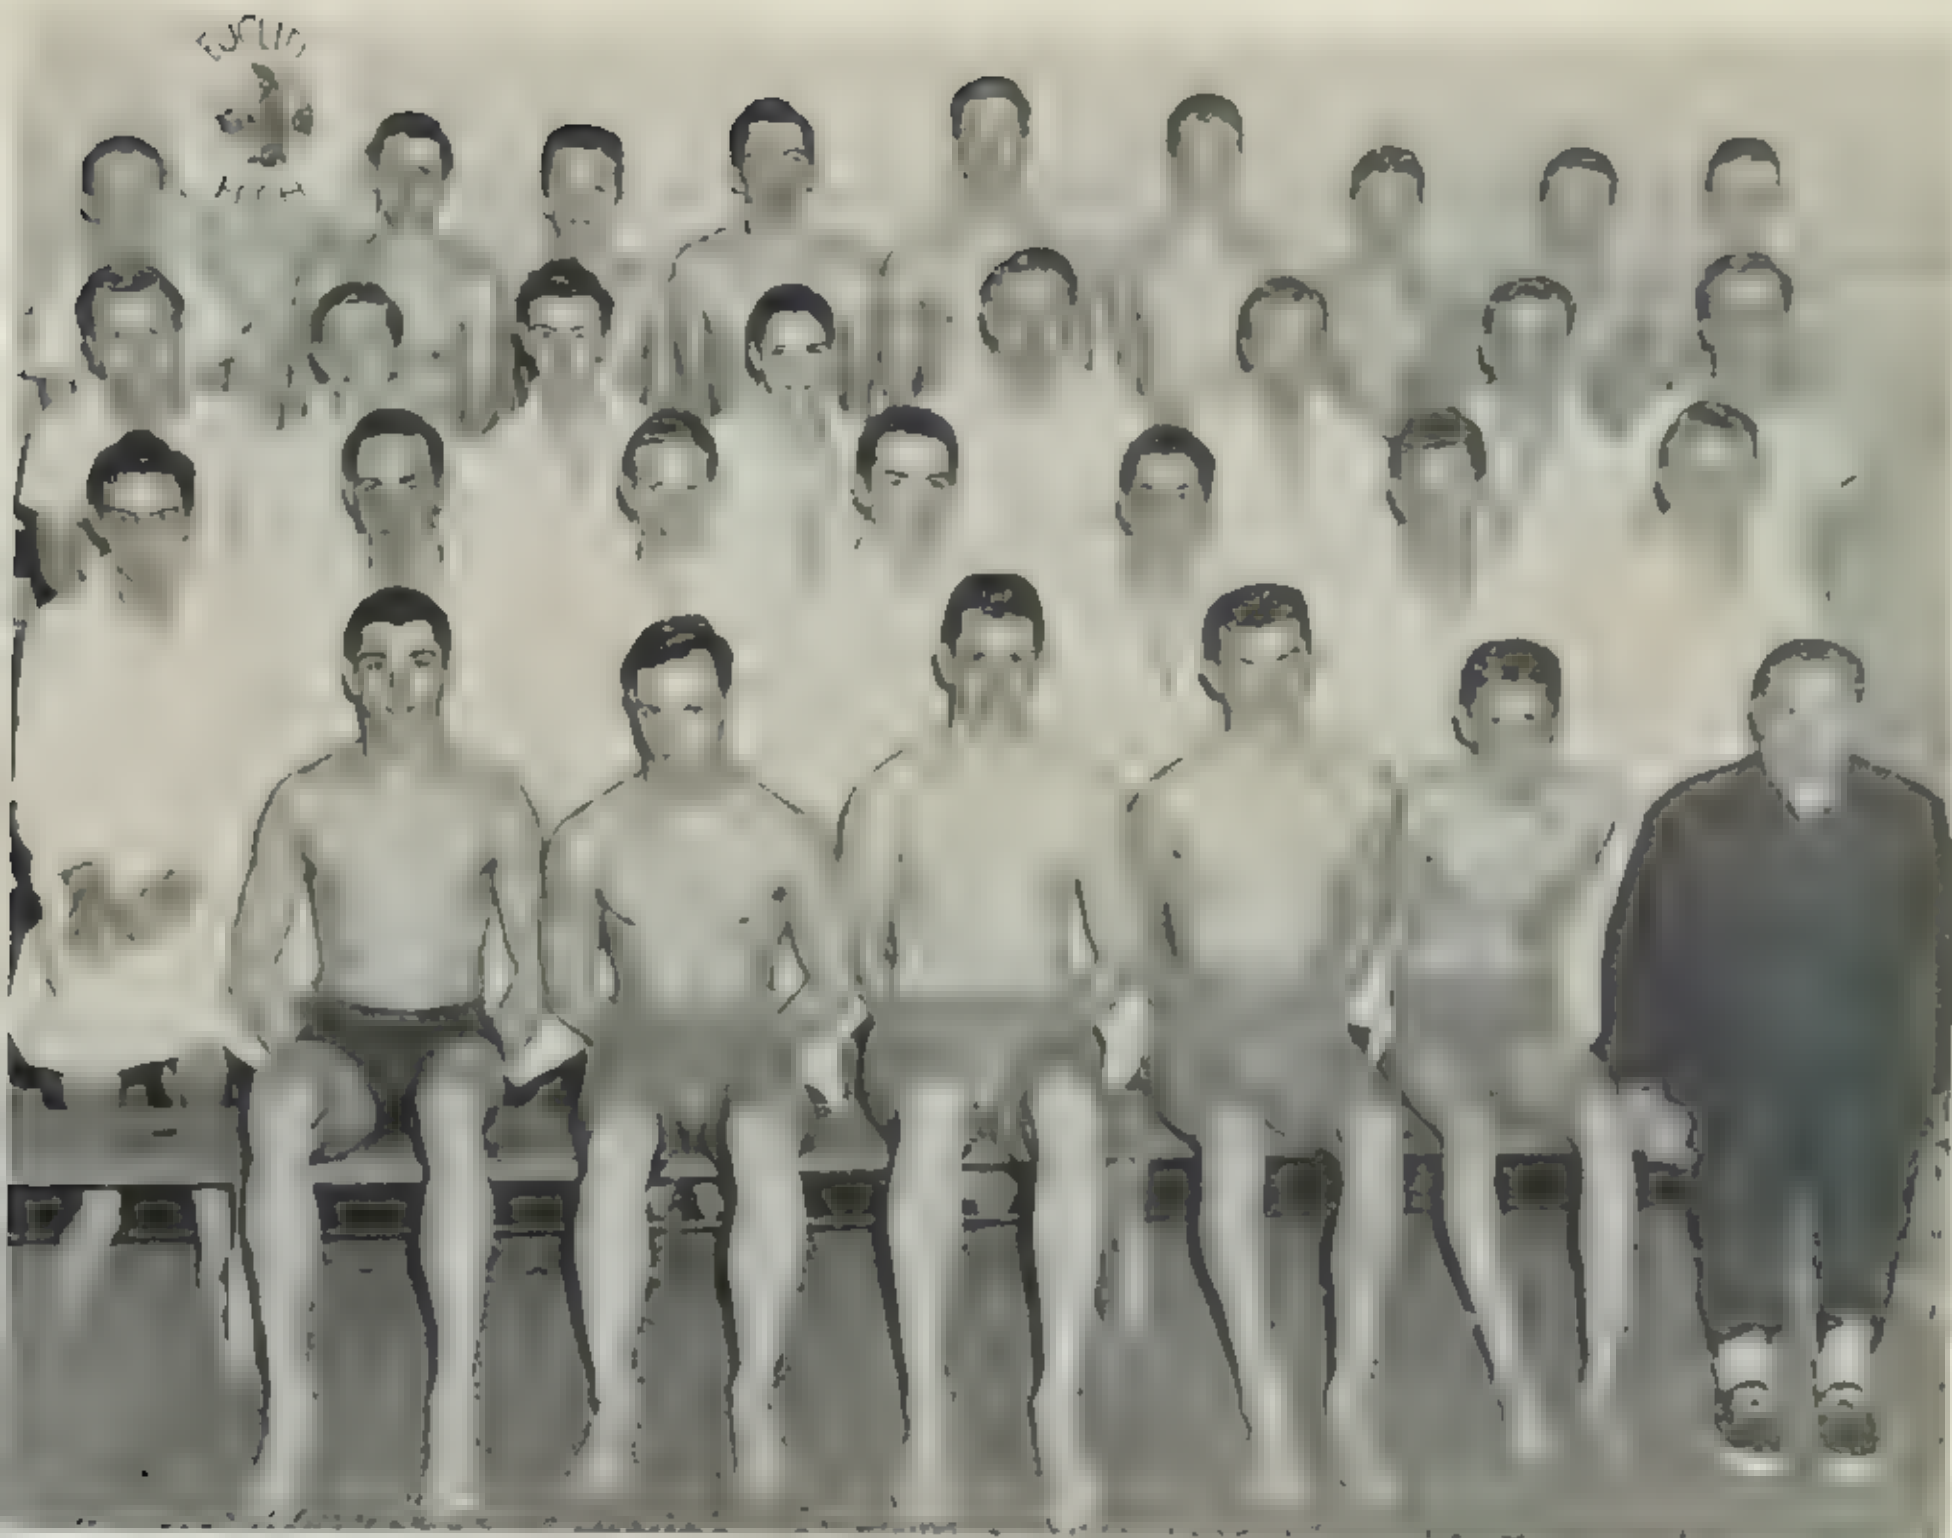

REVIEW

Although dropping the championship game of the district tournament, the Panthers extended their record to 20 wins as against three setbacks.

Led by Captain Frank Nimmo, the "Blue and Gold" cagers swept by Conneaut 63-49, Geneva 61-60, and East High 69-54, to reach the final.

The championship game matched the Panthers against a powerful East Tech quintet, unbeaten in seventeen encounters. After giving the Scarabs a battle all the way, the Panthers were downed 58-52.

Frank Nimmo was elected to the all-tourney first team and received the most valuable player award. Phil Borovic was nominated to the all-tourney second team.

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

Showing much improvement over last year, the Panther tender men provided their fans with any thrilling moments. Coach Ford Case was greatly pleased with the team's showing and is looking forward to greater achievements next year.

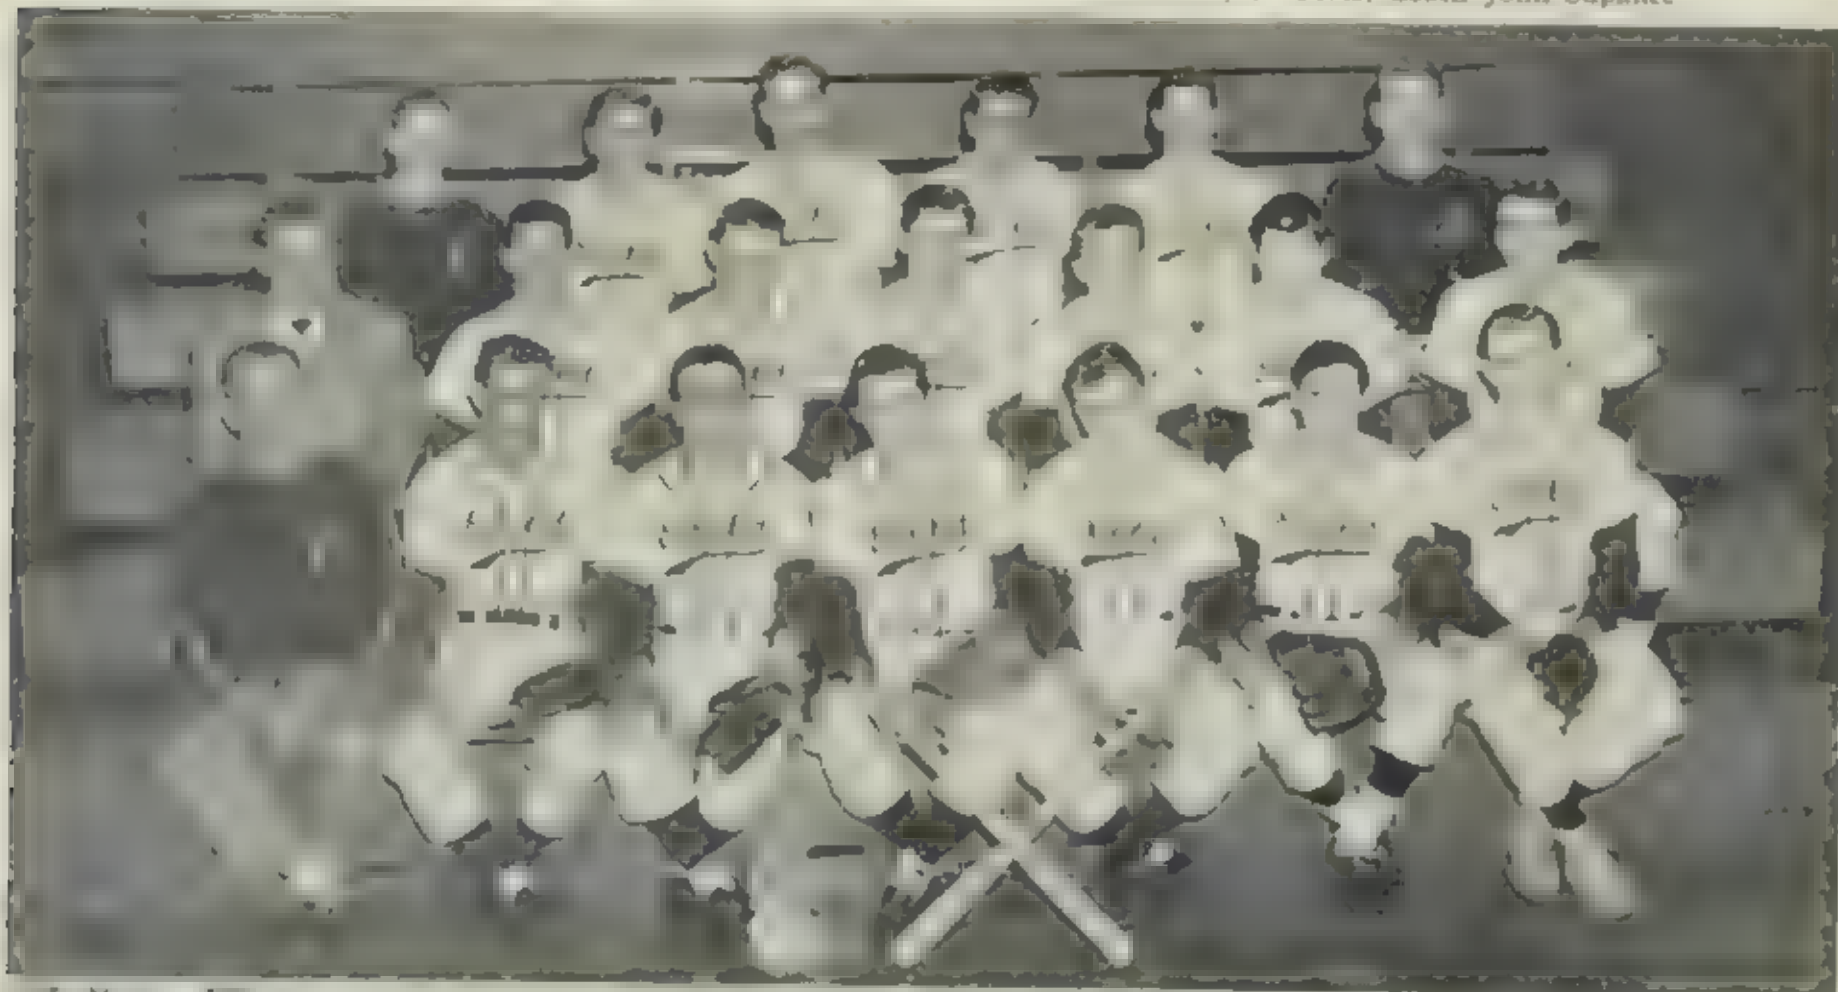

In dual meets with Mentor and Cleveland Heights, the "Blue and Gold" lost by close scores. Against Willoughby the team took eleven out of twelve events. A night dual meet with Shaker and Shaw saw Euclid press the Shakerites all the way, finishing a close second. The Panthers didn't do as well in the Lake Erie League Meet, placing sixth.

Finishing second in the Lake Erie League Cross Country Meet, Euclid's distance runners showed plenty of drive and endurance. Harold Crane, Ted Thomas, Bill Fischer, Don MacKay, and Bob Hale were the first five Panthers to cross the finish line.

GOLF

The first Euclid team to win two Lake Erie League Championships is the title proudly worn by Coach Harold Blackburn's golfers. On May 9 at Summit Country Club, Co-captains Robert Kapelle and George Byrne combined with Dan Sustar and Jerry Penkala to win the tournament by one stroke. Kapelle and Byrne shot 81, Penkala hit 88.

A week later at Highland, the team placed fifth among eighteen teams. Altogether the team won nine matches, lost eight, and tied one. Providing the competition were Cleveland Heights, Latin, Parma, Wadsworth, Collinwood, Brush, Benedict, and Orange.

Other boys who participated in various matches were Joe Bernstein, Robert DeShields, Dennis DiCenzo, William G. Gualo, Ronald Jaseak, Leonard Rattini, Ray Stills, and Louis Tortorelli.

TENNIS

Last fall the Panther tennis team won one match and lost five in L. E. L. competition. Displaying much spirit and interest in the game, the "Blue and Gold" netters gave all their opponents a good battle. Having seen steady improvement throughout the fall season, Coach Frank Trogia can put his team on the court knowing that they will be a threat to any foe.

BAND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The band board of directors, usually composed of ten members elected by the band, from the band, orchestra, and majorettes, plays a very important role in arranging the social affairs as well as the disciplinary matters of the instrumental groups.

BAND DIRECTORS

Both the Concert Band and the Marching Band are under the very able direction of Mr. Dale Harper. Mr. Harper also used the advice of his associates, Mr. Albert Mitchell, Mr. Robert Clark, and Mr.

Concert Band

The Concert Band at Euclid Senior High has always had a fine record. The fine performance that it gives throughout the year, and its record of first division in all contests, including those in previous years, have brought the band a fine reputation throughout the state and county as well as bringing a great deal of prestige to the school. Under the direction of Mr. Dale Harper, the band is a close-knit organization, always striving for perfection.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

Without a song, a nation, a school, or an individual is missing an opportunity to make the days happier, friends friendlier, the sun shinier

An organization of which the Fuchid High School may be justly proud is the hundred voice A Capella Choir under the direction of Miss Jan Tompkins

This year our choir participated in the Christmas Program, sang at Tapco and the Tower, and was host to the Lake Erie League Choirs in their annual festival, at which Mr. Evans of Lakewood and our own Miss Tompkins directed a mass chorus of seven hundred voices

GIRLS ENSEMBLE

The Girls' Ensemble consists of nine girls of outstanding ability chosen from the choir. The ensemble enters the Greater Cleveland contest every year and appears in many concerts

GIRLS' QUARTET

Our Beauty Shop Quartet is composed of three seniors and one sophomore. They have sung at various community events, assemblies, and in the big show.

Sally Carroll, Ruby Ann Friedel, Judith Dinwoodie, Diane B...

MADRIGALS

The Madrigals consists of twelve students selected from the various choirs in the school. This group is the nucleus of all of the choirs.

THE ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra of Euclid Senior High School holds true to that familiar saying—Music Hath Charm.

Although this group is small it brings a great deal of enjoyment to the student body as well as to the Euclid community.

THE MARCHING BAND

Fanfare, please! We want to salute the Euclid High School Marching Band under the direction of Mr. Dale Harper. The Marching Band, led by the ten strutting majorettes, performed their intricate drills at our football games as well as in the Columbus Day parade, the Press Christmas parade, and the Memorial Day parade.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Each year the Music Department of Euclid High stages an annual Christmas Concert, and this past year's was certainly one of the finest ever given. The opening of the program by the Euclid High Orchestra playing a Christmas Overture was followed by the Christmas Pageant, presented by the junior and senior choirs. As always, the beautiful candlelight-procession was an impressive part of the program.

EDITOR AND ASSOCIATE EDITORS

No one need relate to you a long list of efforts and achievements on the part of the editors, for is not this yearbook adequate proof of the outstanding work of these three individuals?

Connie Bates, Editor-in-Chief, had the sole responsibility of the success or failure of this year's EUCLIDIAN.

Dawn House, Associate Editor, was responsible for all the written matter throughout the yearbook.

Sue Spangler, Associate Editor, had in her charge the selection and placement of pictures.

ART EDITORS AND CLASS EDITORS

Art Editor Ron Joranko, and his assistant, Jeanné Powell, have one of the most important jobs on the Euclidian staff—that of designing the cover for our yearbook and assisting in deciding the page layouts for the Euclidian.

Three other important persons are the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Class Editors. They are responsible for your picture being in the yearbook. This year the Sophomore Class Editor was Myra Jerkis, Junior Class Elaine Lokar; and Senior Class, Rita Atran and Carol Cutler.

EUCLIDIAN EDITORIAL STAFF

The Euclidian Editorial Staff, under the supervision of the Euclidian sponsors, Mr. Angene and Mr. Wiley, and student editor, Connie Bates, is subdivided into several sections with each section playing an extremely important role in the production of an outstanding yearbook. The students of this staff work unceasingly, searching for and organizing new ideas concerning smart cover designs, interesting picture arrangements, and the best selection of pictures.

The student body owes a debt of gratitude to these people, both student and teachers, who gave so freely of their time and effort to provide Euclid Senior High School students with a yearbook they could proudly treasure in the years to come.

SURVEY PAGE EDITORS

Meeting the deadline, selecting capable writers, writing a column, and selecting stories are just a few of the problems confronting the experienced and talented page editors of the Survey.

SURVEY ADVISORS

With their familiarity with the problems involved in such a task, Mr. Gordon and Mr. Mize directed the Survey in its most successful year to date.

SURVEY EDITORIAL STAFF

Being on the lookout for news is the prime qualifications of a member of the editorial staff of the Survey.

They are also expected to be capable and dependable. Their adeptness at writing is the principal reason for national acclaim.

THE INTERNATIONAL QUILL AND SCROLL

It is the aim of every aspiring high school journalist to become a member of the International Quill and Scroll. It is the aim of those who have a valid interest in writing, the chance to be recognized. Nothing in one's high school career can be as rewarding to a person as to be accepted into an organization so widely known, and so widely accepted. No real duties are connected with the organization since it is purely honorary. The pin is a special award which is "set" on it is printed the words Quill and Scroll and the words IHSJHSI. The words meaning International Honor Society for High School Journalists. To become a member of this organization, a person must have made a significant contribution to one of the high school publications and have a high academic average. He must also be recommended by his adviser and the advisor secretary. Quill and Scroll is to a high school journalist what a degree is to a college senior—a memorable and significant achievement.

Homecoming Queen

Reigning over Euclid High's first Annual Homecoming was Pat. Pat was chosen queen by the five winter sports teams. She was presented with flowers and a locket as a remembrance of the occasion. Her reign, though short, lighted Euclid's 1952 social season.

Homecoming Queen's Attendants

Grace DeNower, representing the class of the Homecoming Queen, was the only mid-year Senior to be chosen as a Homecoming Attendant.

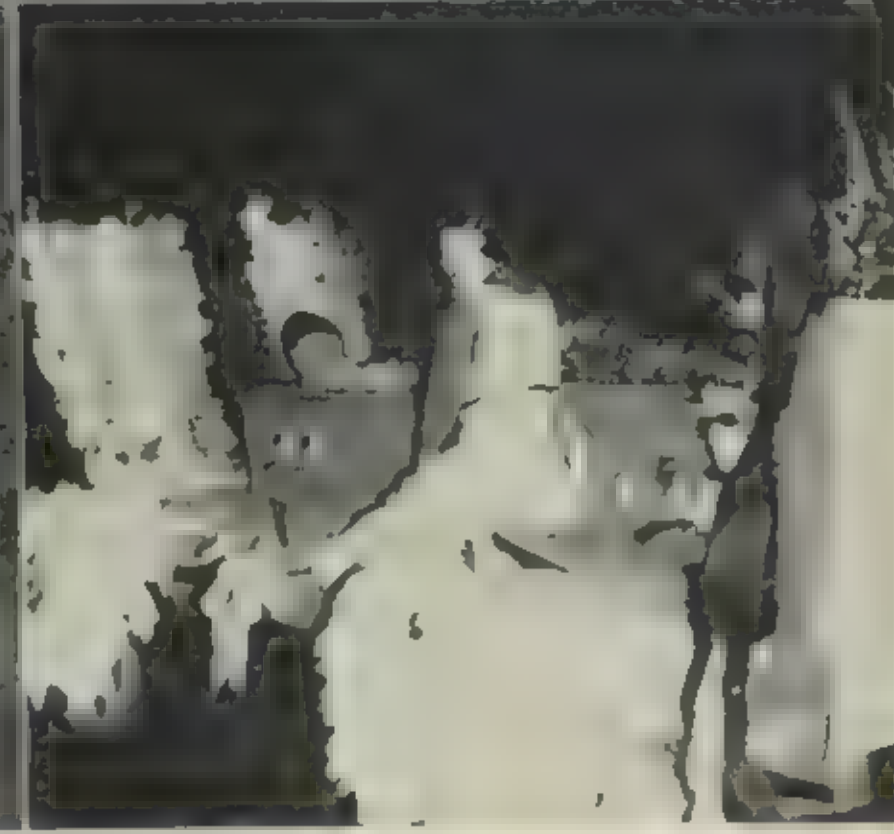

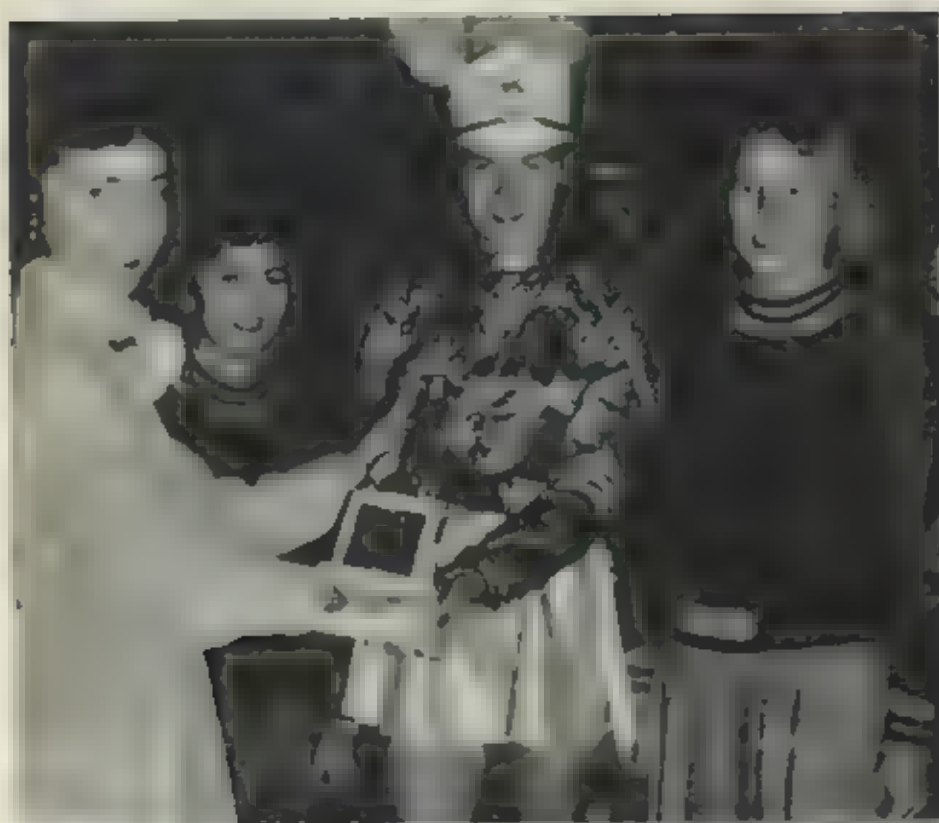

Carolyn Mosall, one of the most popular Juniors at Euclid, was chosen as the person in her class to be a Homecoming Attendant.

Homecoming

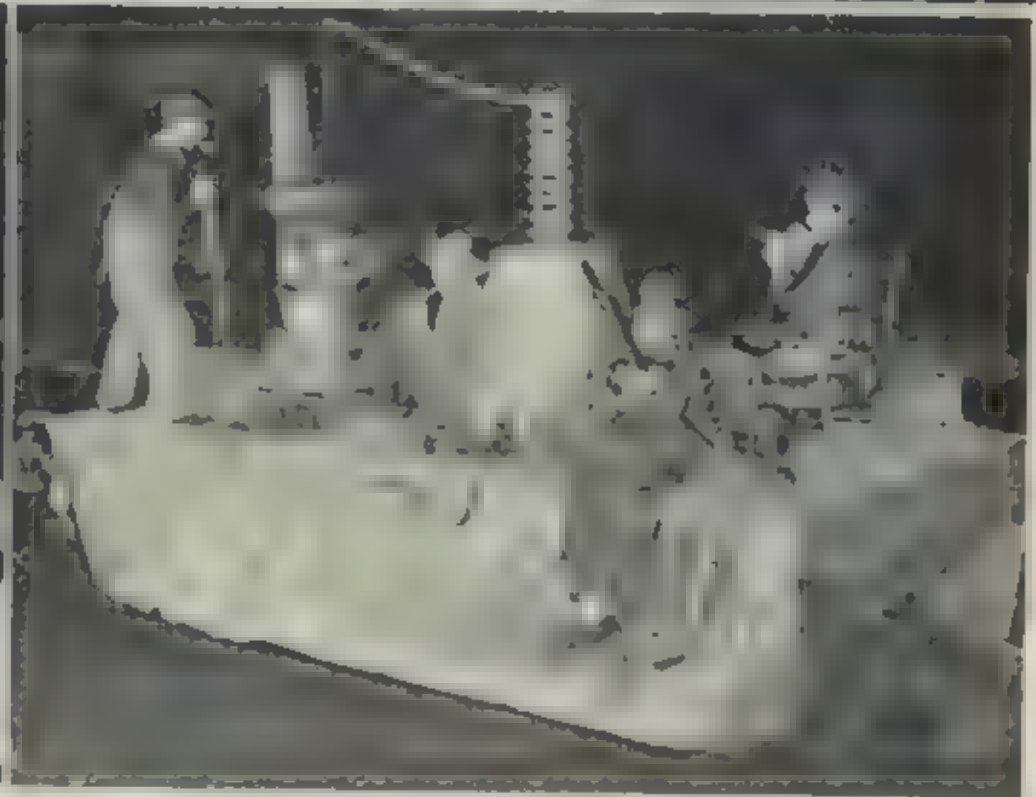

As early as June, 1952, plans were being made for the first annual "homecoming" of Euclid Senior High. Some said it could never be done, but finally on October 10, 1952, the hopes and dreams of many students became a reality.

The night got off to a tremendous start at 7:00 when there was a huge parade led by the band with the majorettes. The cars with the queens followed. After them came the floats representing the different school organizations. There was a great deal of hard work done on all the floats and they were truly a magnificent sight. When the parade arrived at the school there was a large bonfire, at which the cheerleaders led the crowd in cheers and songs.

HI-Y - FRIENDSHIP FLOAT

Combining their efforts, the Hi-Y and Friendship Clubs built a float that was accorded by all to be the most beautiful in the Homecoming Parade.

P. A. CLUB FLOAT

"She'll Be Comin' 'Round the Mountain When She Comes!" The most unique float in the parade was the one built by the P. A. Club. It depicted a mountain scene and added a gay touch to the event.

Following the presentation of the queens to a capacity crowd, the game with Shaw commenced. During the halt the floats paraded around the track while a select committee decided on the one that would receive the "Best Float Trophy." The float which represented a big bird cage with the Shaw Cards imprisoned within it, won the trophy. The cheerleaders and the majorettes were awarded the trophy. The band demonstrations were provided by both schools.

Although the final score of the game favored Shaw, 13-7, the night was a success in the eyes of all Euclidites. A huge dance sponsored by the Euclid team shed the grand finale to an eventful evening which we hope will live long in the traditions of Euclid Senior High School.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Resplendent in new uniforms, that were purchased by the hard working cheerleaders with the aid of a gift from the Student Council, this year's cheerleaders seemed sure to be rated as one of the top squads in our district.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

Following their Junior Varsity team and cheering them on to victory is the duty of our Reserve Cheerleaders. Holly Steinfurth, the captain, headed the finest squad yet to be introduced to basketball enthusiasts.

Assembly - Mr. Archer

Early in the year Mr. Archer, who is a well-known speaker, gave a talk to the students. His talk was on the "How and Why of the World." With the use of a few simple stories, Mr. Archer related the story of the world as it is today, and a few of its own facts.

RECREATION ROOM OPENING

One of the first of the new recreation room was the opening of the Recreation Room. The students of the school were given a chance to see the new room. The room was very large and comfortable. It was a very nice place for the students to go to for recreation.

JOAN YARBROUGH

Lovely Miss Joan Yarbrough was chosen by the spring sports' teams to be Euclid's first spring sports' queen. Her reign was another highlight in 1953's whirl of activities

JOANNE BAUER

With her winning ways and her vivacity—charming, likeable Joanne Bauer was chosen by the teams to be a Senior Attendant.

CONNIE CLAMPITT

Connie Clampitt also was chosen for this honor. Because she is well-liked, she seemed a natural choice to attend the queen of the spring sports.

JOANNE LACEY

The golf, tennis, track, and baseball teams all agreed that friendly and attractive Joanne Lacey should be the Junior class' contribution to the royal family of spring sports.

MARCIA CHRISTOPHER

Marcia Christopher, with her warmth and friendly ways making her a logical choice to be a member of Euclid's royal family, was given the honor of representing her class at the spring sports dance.

We Sincerely Thank . . .

All of the persons who have given so generously of their time and energy in order to make the 1953 EUCLIDIAN a success, and especially . . .

MR. LESTER ANGELE and MR. GEORGE WHELY . . . Editorial Advisors . . . whose guidance and constant good humor have made our job a pleasure rather than a chore.

MR. ROBERT BENNETT . . . Business Advisor . . . who went about the job of raising the needed budget with great enthusiasm and no thought of his personal interests.

MR. TED WAHL and MR. ROY SHEIZ . . . The Cleveland Engraving Company . . . to whom this book, itself, is a fine tribute for the splendid work done by these gentlemen.

EDWARD T. SAMUEL . . . Edward T. Samuel, Printer . . . who, for the past year, has welcomed us not only to his office but even to his home in the evenings in order to give us the help we so desperately needed

RAIMOR STUDIOS . . . School Photographers . . . who did such a fine job planning the layouts for his photographs. It was certainly a pleasure working with such co-operative people.

MR. HECKER . . . Little King Cover Company . . . who never lost his patience through all our doubts and hesitations.

The Administration and Faculty of Euclid Senior High . . . who, though being constantly disturbed by last minute requests, classroom announcements, and general nuisances, have remained calm and co-operative and thereby made our job much easier

. . . and . . . The Staffs . . . who, through their earnestness, diligence, and unending labors have made this book what it is.

And, we sincerely thank each and every one of YOU who have supported us and your school by buying the 1953 EUCLIDIAN.

HYDRECO CONTROLS
THE BIG "MUSCLES"
FOR HEAVY
JOBS

Typifying today's miracles of engineering are the mechanical giants that move hillsides, build dams and lay turnpikes at unbelievable speeds.

Oil hydraulic systems provide the muscles for lifting and controlling these massive loads.

HYDRECO supplies the pumps, valves and cylinders for these hydraulic control systems.
